THEME	TITLE	AUTHOR	WHY THIS BOOK?	QUESTIONS & DISCUSSIONS	ACTIVITY IDEAS & LINKS TO OTHER TEXTS
EVERYDAY BOOKS	Traction Man is Here	Mini Grey	Picture Book. With the class read the pictures carefully, looking for details.	Discuss together any difficult words. Re-read a number of times and talk about how the characters feel. Ask: Are the adventures real? Who made them up?	Bring into school other kitchen equipment and encourage children to invent further adventures for Traction Man and Scrubbing Brush. Design Traction Man adverts or invent a new superhero or heroine.
	Meerkat Mail	Emily Gravett	Begin by finding out a bit about meerkats and the other animals, such as jackals. Watch meerkats on film with the class.	Invite the children to write a newspaper article about Sunny's visit to one of the places in the book. Encourage them to write postcards from other visits that he made.	Together draw a map of the story. Also, read Wolves (Macmillan) and Little Mouse's Big Book of Fears (Macmillan).
	Amazing Grace	Mary Hoffman	Read & Respond. With the class tell or read the stories mentioned: Joan of Arc, Anansi, The Wooden Horse, Hannibal, Treasure Island, Hiawatha, Mowgli, Aladdin and Dick Whittington	Ask: What sort of person is Grace? 	Who's Afraid Of The Big Bad Book?	Lauren Child	Before reading this book it is essential to know the stories of Goldilocks, Rapunzel, Dick Whittington and Cinderella – so start by retelling these stories or some of the wit will be lost	Having really discussed the book, encourage the children to try falling 'into a book' and becoming a character in a well-known fairy tale, but then alter what happens.	Take photos, enlarge and copy these for the children. Then, ask the children to draw characters and objects onto the photos, using Lauren Child's collage technique.
	Dr Xargle's Book of Earthlets	Tony Ross	Good book for emotions discussion - empathy for how others may be feeling or reacting in the same situation	Re-read a number of times and then discuss the parents, the child and the monster. Ask: Who in the story is naughty? Are the parents ignoring the child or is he choosing the wrong moment? Are they too busy? Are they kind parents? What does the monster stand for? When do we feel or behave like monsters?	Let the children take it in turn to role play being Mum and Dad and talk about what has happened in the kitchen!
	Tuesday	David Wiesner	A picture book with very few words - lead to imaginative interpretations and comprehension. Reasoning skills.	After reading ask the children: What do the frogs remind you of on the leaves? (Flying saucers.) Hot-seat the man at 11.21pm. Ask: Why do the frogs fall off the leaves? Why is the last frog looking grumpy? Then turn the opening pages into a story. As the detective, encourage the children to interview the man in pyjamas and write up a police report. Ask: What happens the next Tuesday at 7.58pm?	Together role play the news report and make a film of the interview and news item.

	The Flower	John Light	Open discussions.	Before reading ask the class: From the cover what might the book be about? How do the city people feel at the start of the book? Pause on the page in the library and see what the children notice. Ask: Why might books be dangerous? Why might a book be labelled 'do not read'? Discuss the two books mentioned in the border: 'Jack and the Beanstalk' and Alice in Wonderland. Ask: What do they have in common and how do they differ? Why were they chosen? Stop where Brigg is reading the book and discuss what the book is about. Ask: Why does he read it in secret? Then read straight through and discuss the theme again at the end of the book.	Create a list of comparisons - what do they have in common and how do they differ?
	Gorrila	Anthony Browne	Read & Respond.	Read through the story and discuss. Re-read and look more carefully at the pictures. Discuss the Dad and the Girl. Ask: What do they want? Talk about their relationship. Ask: Who is the gorilla? If you had to say what the book was about in one word, what word would you choose? Which is the most important picture and why?	With the class make a list of strange things

	Emily Brown And The Thing	Cressida Cowell	Prediction and challenging vocabulary	I would start this by bringing in a 'cuddly' and discussing why they are so important! On the first reading, stop on the page where Emily asks, What's really the matter? and predict. Re-read and discuss the challenging vocabulary – provide pictures and relate words to children's own experiences, listing synonyms. Tell a story that Emily might have told the witches and discuss the use of the font changes. Discuss what the story is about – especially the end.	With the class make lists of nice/scary things and write as list poems. Also, provide other 'Emily Brown' books for free reading, including That Rabbit Belongs to Emily Brown (Orchard Books).
	Frog And Toad Together	Arnold Lobel	Novel	What do the stories tell us about the different characters of Frog and Toad? Read through and list clues. Ask: Why would they make good friends? Which is your favourite story and why? Also, read Frog and Toad are Friends (HarperCollins).	Each of the five stories is a little gem. Here are some simple ideas for each tale: 1. Prepare model making lists with the class of what needs to be done and have children make 'job lists'. 2. Grow seeds: choose stories, poems, songs and play music for the seeds. 3. Bake cookies and discuss the need for 'will power'. 4. List brave characters for stories and discuss what it means to be brave. 5. What does the dream story mean?

	The Owl Who Was Afraid Of The Dark	Jill Tomlinson	Read & Respond	List and discuss fears about the dark saying: you are only afraid of the dark because you don't know about it. Role play Plop talking with the different characters. Write a letter to Plop to persuade him that the dark is actually friendly. Use an image of an owl (or the real thing if available) and draw in your 'nature sketch book'. Ask: How has Plop changed by the end?	Write list poems about the dark. Find out about other nocturnal animals and create constellations. Paint and create owl collages and masks. Revisit Owl Babies (Walker Books).
	The Giraffe, the Pelly and Me	Roald Dahl	This is a meaty read. Begin by finding out a bit about giraffes, pelicans and monkeys.	Ask: What dreams would you have?	Invite the class to write adverts for 'The Ladderless Window Cleaning Company' and invent names for new sweets. Discuss the final song and its meaning. Draw 'The Grubber'. Learn, sing (or chant) and perform the various songs with the class.
	Fantastic Mr Fox	Roald Dahl	Read & Respond	Draw the three farmers and collect information/quotes about them from the book. Re-read and savour the great writing in Chapter 3. Invite children to write letters to the farmers from the crowd at the end of chapter 7. Before reading Chapter 9 ask: What do you think Mr Fox's plan will be? Pause in Chapter 12 and ask: Are the other animals right? Pause in Chapter 14 and ask: Is stealing right in this case?	Discuss with the children whether farmers should shoot foxes. Then with the class role play the conversation between the farmers at the end.

	The Hodgeheg	Dick King Smith	Read & Respond	Introduce the book by showing film/images of hedgehogs and discussing the problem they have with roads! Make a list of rules about crossing the road for Max. Ask: What advice would you give Max about crossing the road? Write sentences that swap over words and letters.	Role play a family discussion about Max's condition in Chapter 4. Hot-seat the hedgehog Max meets in Chapter 5. Tell the story of 'the first crossing' and hot-seat the lollipop lady at the end! Next, try reading Dick King-Smith's Fox Busters (Puffin).
	Flat Stanley	Jeff Brown	Read & Respond	With the class use 'role on the wall' to collect insights into the family and ask: What are they like and how do we know? Together explore their feelings and list the advantages of being flat. Encourage the children to write the police report for Chapter 2 and the invite from Thomas. As journalists, invite them to interview Stanley and write a news report for Chapter 4. Discuss the teasing in Chapter 5 and how the boys feel. Finally, can they write another adventure for Stanley?	Make available the other 'Flat Stanley' books for independent or guided reading.

Year Two Reading Spine List

	Willa And Old Miss Annie	Berlie Doherty	This is a gentle, deep book of three linked stories that should be savoured and thought about.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read pages 1 and 2: discuss what will happen, who is Joshua and how will they all become friends. Read 5 pages and ask: Who is lost? What is 'Joshua' about in one word?2. In 'The Bony' discuss the rights and wrongs. Ask: What would you say to Silas and Molly?3. Discuss pets and friends. Ask: Can wild animals be pets?
